HISTORY

Our expert granite fabrication dates as far back as 1905 at what is now known as the Hunt's Point Market. Before eminent domain was applied to our property by NYC, this was the home of our first factory.

We established our new factory on Bassett Ave. in 1962. We have since grown into both adjacent buildings and expanded our operations. We are proud to serve customers and dealers alike at our new factory location.

Our office support staff, graphic designers and granite artisans all work together under the same roof to ensure nothing but the best quality work.

OUR VISION

Our values will never change. We are a team oriented, family owned business who holds our customer satisfaction with the greatest regard; from our sales team who makes sure that you are aware of your purchase options, to our support staff who ensures all cemetery filings are coordinated properly, to the design room who creates all of our CAD drawings for review, and finally our factory artisans and delivery/setting teams.

We take a prideful approach with each step of the process. We are here to make sure the memorial for your loved one as special as they were.

SIZES & SHAPES ALLOWED

The size and shape of the monument allowed on your plot will vary from cemetery to cemetery, and from section to section within each cemetery. If you are unaware of what your cemetery will allow, we will exhaust all of our resources in order to determine what the cemetery will allow on your plot.

There are three finishes to take note of for your monument decisions; polished, unpolished/smooth and rock pitched. You can see from the photos that the finish will affect the way each color "shows".

Rock Pitched

A natural and hand pitched rocky surface, more of a classical look.

Polished

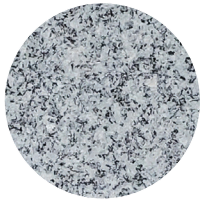

Nice flat and shiny surface.

Unpolished/Smooth

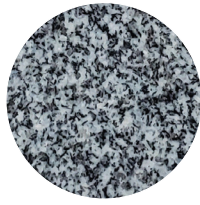

Flat surface but no shine, can be compared to matte finish.
